BAD COLOR TO FIGHT.

Sequel to the Clash Between Tommy Ryan and O'Brien.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.-Last night's O'Brien had a sequel to-day in some widelend color to the charge.

The talk of "arrangement" had been current long before the fight came off. Ring followers shook their heads and declared the go would be a wonder if it was business. but they could not see why either man should belittle the question of supremacy in a six-round bout here when the same could be done later in a longer fight and to vastly bigger money somewhere else.

POOLROOM PROPRIETOR

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.-After having been closed several days, a number of poolrooms here controlled by a bookmaker who | not accept the dates awarded to it by the is credited with having won nearly $1,000,000 on the race tracks last season have reopened. When the places were closed it was said to be due to the raise in prices by the telegraph company for racing results, but according to the Herald the true reason was that the proprietor discovered a conspiracy among employes whereby more than $250,000 had been paid out in five months. A new staff of men now run the rooms.

each room were honestly recorded on each sheet by the conspirators, but on one sheet would be recorded wagers that were not made. If the result of the race showed the fraudulent wagers to be successful the sheet on which they were recorded was turned into the central office of the syndicate. If the result of the race showed the | circuit, and that if held ten days the fair fraudulent wagers to be losses, the honest sheet was turned in. Thus the dishonest employes stood no chance of loss, and almost every day they were able to take thousands of dollars from their employer. In other cases the results of races were held back by operators until wagers on the | been left undone to make the independent winner could be recorded. The result was race meeting a success. that while the syndicate was doing a great business, taking bets from other rooms, the proprietors of which did not care to risk large amounts, and announcing its willingwent from one room to another, devoting done as a last resort, but the effort is con-a day to each, but the sheets in the one he sidered fruitless and the local horsemen are visited invariably showed profits, while others turned in balances on the wrong side. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 28 .- The New York State Fair Commission has decided to recent meeting of the Grand Circuit stewards at Cleveland. Furthermore, it has decided to hold an independent race meeting Sept. 5 to 10 inclusive in opposition to the Hartford meeting. Commissioner Perren has been appointed chairman of the race committee, with Commissioners Deforest, Settle and C. A. Wieting as his associates. Mr. Perren, as well as the commission, is satisfied that a successful meeting can be held here in opposition to Charter Oak It is understood that all wagers made in | Park. Before the commissioners' meeting yesterday Senator Horace White and Mr. Settle made a decided effort to get the commission to hold a ten days' fair, so that it could include the big circuit races, but alhough their arguments were-well-grounded the commission felt that it could not change its date nor lengthen the fair. The reasons assigned were that the weel of Labor day had been secured in the cattle
